PRESIDENT COOLIDGE DEFINES POSITION ON ACTION OF SENATE

OFFICERS FIND MUCH LIQUOR

John Wierabinski of Cherry Valley, Proprietor of a Small Store And Motion Picture Theatre, Admits Sale And Possession

GETS STIFF FINE AND COST

Must Also Serve Eleven Months And Twenty-five Days In the Allegheny County Workhouse

John Wierabinski, of Cherry Valley, proprietor of a small store and motion picture theatre there admitted the unlawful sale and possession of liquor. Judge Cummins fined him $800 and costs and sentenced him to 11 months and 25 days in the Allegheny county workhouse. If the fine and costs are paid the imprisonment will be reduced to six months. The officers who arrested this defendant found much liquor in the place, in addition to many bottles that had been emptied. There was whisky in quarts that was labeled "Large," a spurious label. Many empty cases of Jamaica ginger were found. The defendant claimed that he had taken over this store in 1921, and that he had never cleared out many of the empty liquor bottles that were there when he got the place.

Harry Kametis, of Donora, admitted the sale of liquor, and upon motion of his counsel, sentence was suspended until February 20.

Domonick Lombardo, an Italian resident of Rice's Landing, Greene county, where he has lived for several years, admitted driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor. When his car skidded out the National Pike east he damaged a car belonging to a Mr. Ratcliffe. For this damage he paid $143.12. The accident occurred on January 18, on a Sunday, the defendant having been to Washington to visit two daughters who live there.

Letters from reputable citizens of Rice's Landing, including officers of the bank there, gave Lombardo a good reputation as a law-abiding, sober, industrious citizen. He was fined $200 and costs and sent to jail for ten days.

B. G. Shutte proprietor of a billiard room, admitted he had allowed a punch board to be operated in his place of business. He was fined $50 and costs. The district attorney said his arrest was one of several the county authorities had made in an effort to break (Continued on page four)

Company A To Play Here This Evening

What promises to be the best game played on the H. T. A. C. floor this year will be played tonight, when Company A comes to Charleroi to stack up against the fast Hill Top team. This will be the second game between these teams this year, the first contest having been played at Monongahela, Company A winning in the last minute of play by the score of 23-21. The Hill Tops are determined to even the series with tonight's game. This game should draw a banner crowd.

On Thursday night the public will have an opportunity to witness another good game, when the Hill Tops take on the Pennsylvania Railroad team. Last fall these two teams met on the gridiron and the local club won. The P. R. R. team has boasted that they are better than the local club in basketball and are out for revenge for the licking they received in football last fall. Both these games will start at 8:15. The following men, as in all previous games this year, will represent the club on Tuesday and Thursday nights:

Jameson and Haust, forwards; Estaque, center; Gerard, Larue and Dutine, guards.

Defends Action In Defying the Upper House, Citing Precedents of Other Presidents Who Refused to Comply With Demands

AWAITS COUNSEL ADVICE

Will Not Hesitate To Call For Resignation of Any Official Whose Conduct Warrants Such Action on His Part—Dismissal Is Executive Function

Washington, Feb. 12.—(United Press).—Impeachment was being considered today as the next step in the Senate's efforts to oust Secretary of the Navy Denby from the Cabinet because of his connection with the naval oil leases.

The Senate late yesterday, by a vote of 47 to 34, called on President Coolidge to demand that Denby resign.

Mr. Coolidge, four hours later, in a statement defied the upper House and refused emphatically to pay any attention to the Senate demand. He said the Senate had no right to make it.

Denby himself had nothing to say when he was told of the Senate's vote, but previously he had stated he would not resign.

The best legal minds in the House and Senate will now consider whether impeachment proceedings against Denby would be likely to succeed. If there is a probability that Denby would beat the impeachment court, the action probably will not be taken.

Meanwhile, there was tremendous indignation in the Senate against Mr. Coolidge for his refusal to heed the demand couched in the Robinson resolution.

Mr. Coolidge, in his formal statement defying the Senate, cited precedents in the action of other presidents who refused to comply with Senate demands when they interfered with the executive functions.

The president said he conceived it to be a fundamental of American liberty that the president be not meddled with by the congress.

He said:

"No official recognition can be given to the passage of the Senate resolution relative to their opinion concerning members of the Cabinet or other officers under executive control.

"As soon as special counsel can advise me as to the legality of the leases and assemble for me the pertinent facts in the various transactions, I (Continued on page two)

MONEY RETURNED; MYSTERY UNSOLVED

WILLIAM ABEL CASE IS HELD OVER

The William Abel case has been held over, pending the decision of the court.

The suit is based on the contention that the kettle confiscated by the local police was not being used as a still.

Mystery still surrounds the appropriation, by parties unknown, of $1,000 from the rooms of George Poulos, one of the proprietors of the Busy Bee restaurant, and Mrs. Susie Meanos, and the fire as a sequel to the alleged robberies, as related in yesterday's Mail. The money, however, was found in the kitchen of the restaurant yesterday, tied up in a handkerchief, and returned to the owners.

The local police and the Burns Detective agency are working on the case, and future developments may follow.

Police Looking For Men Who Attack Another

Monongahela police are looking for three men in that city, all of whom have been identified, who attacked Mike Bosco, at the corner of Main and Fourth streets, Monongahela, in the heart of the business section, Sunday night at 6:30 o'clock. Bosco suffered a deep scalp wound when one of the assailants struck him with a heavy sharp instrument. After the attack on Bosco, who was knocked unconscious by the blow, the three men beat a hasty retreat down Fourth street toward Railroad street, where they finally escaped, although an all-night search was made for them.

The attack, according to Bosco, who was taken to the police station in a passing automobile, was due to a religious difference between himself and one of his assailants, whose names he refuses to reveal.

Revivication o the North Charleroi Fire department it apparent, when as a result of a recent smoker given by the department, 23 new members were added to the roster at a meeting held in the Municipal building of that place last night. At the smoker in reference, each member of the department was privileged to take a member, with the result that 23 members were added to the rolls as stated.

The fire department of North Charleroi is looking up, after a state of lethargy, and it is expected that it will be bigger and better than ever. It has the support of the borough council in its laudable endeavors.

At the session last night, the auditors presented a report showing a balance of $1400 in the treasury.

The department has installed a radio outfit in its club rooms.

The committee reported that the Booster smoker was a complete success, as is attested by the foregoing news mention.

WIFE OF EDITOR OF THE DONORA AMERICAN DIES

Mrs. Beatrice Watson, aged 32 years, wife of William H. Watson, of Donora, died this morning at 7:05 o'clock, the cause of death being acute dilation of the heart, the result of complications following an operation last September. Mrs. Watson was born in Irwin, Pa., and received her education at St. Xavier College, Beatty, Pa. She was prominently connected with the social life of Donora, being the past president of the Woman's Club of that town. The lady is the wife of the editor of Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

At a hearing held before Alderman J. B. White of Monessen yesterday morning, Mrs. Honor McCullough of Charleroi made a complete confession of the actions of herself and Miss Alice Geragovich, aged 17, employed at a physician's home in Belle Vernon, one day last week.

According to her story, Mrs. McCullough and the young girl went for a joy ride with two West Newton young men, employed at the Radiator works of that place, and the two girls were taken to the home of Mrs. A. Delhaye of Monessen. The greater part of the night was spent there. Mrs. McCullough then took her young charge to the physician's home, and the young girl explained to the physician what had happened. He immediately got in touch with Monessen authorities and

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.
The recurrence of the natal day of Abraham Lincoln impresses the nation with the greatness of the martyr president, and his acts while serving and conserving this great country of ours in time of need.
Time only adds lustre to the fame of Abraham Lincoln. His great simplicity, his human sympathy, his heart attuned to the needs of the people, as he was one of them, enshrine his memory in the hearts of the people.
The fact that, despite his elevation to the highest office within the gift of the people, did not change his love for them; he was ever one of them, and as we worship at his shrine today, let us recall his deeds and his fame, and above and beyond all, emulate the sterling attributes of his character.
According to a statement attributed to the Republican National Committee "the disclosures in the Fall case are in a sense discreditable to the United States Senate and to the Harding administration." Whatever the precise degree of responsibility in the two cases mentioned, it is going to be difficult for even the cleverest lawyers to convince the public that in the Teapot Dome affair the government was despoiled only "in a sense."

The conviction by a Supreme Court jury of William H. Anderson, New York State superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, seemed a foregone conclusion after he testified that an utter stranger thrust $25,000 upon him for his own personal use. Mr. Anderson's own friends must have been unable to swallow and to have deplored that amazing "Mr. King" story.

After talking for months about what the farmers of the Northwest wanted, and predicting what would happen if they did not get it, nine Senatorial members of the farm bloc now turn round and ask their agricultural constituents to say just what they do want. Presumably the Senators are winded and it is now up to the farmers.

The Senate Oil committee has decided to appoint three disinterested physicians to examine Fall and report his exact condition. Clearly the former cabinet member is suspected of "playing possum" with the connivance of his own physicians. Fall's misfortunes are going to include a sizable doctor's bill.

We read that the vast increase of automobiles has brought no corresponding decrease of horses. In ten years the number of horses has decreased about a million and a half, the chief decrease being in the cities. The decrease in the rural districts is very small.

It now appears that Ambassador Kellogg found evening dress in the morning to startling and hereafter—whatever the West may say—will go to the King's court in "knee pants" like the other diplomats, in order not to be so painfully conspicuous.

ATTORNEY CHALFANT IS HURT AT WASHINGTON

Attorney O. S. Chalfant, of South Wade avenue, Washington, a brother of Mrs. John H. Frye of Crest avenue, was seriously injured last night when he fell on an icy sidewalk in front of the A. T. O. Fraternity house in East Bean street, at the county seat. He was returning home from the residence of Attorney T. Jeff Duncan, where he had been a dinner guest when the accident occurred. Students from the Fraternity house rushed to his aid and securing a stretcher carried him to his home. It was at first thought that he had broken his hip, but late last night this had not been definitely determined. He suffered severely from the fall and the shock.

REVIEW OF 1923

There were no improvements in jazz.

The craziest song in history made a fortune for its composer.

Automobiles killed the omst people.

Bootleg whiskey came next in deadliness.

Ordinary disease ran a poor third.

The saxophone continued to grow in unpopularity.

No new cuss words of owners of second hand cars or for golf players were invented.

Lonk skirts learned the truth of "They Seldom Come Back."

An unconfirmed rumor says that one pair of cotton stockings were sold during the year.

No new jokes were discovered, except maybe Ford's boom for President.

One million and three mortgages were put on homes to enable the owners to buy cars.

Green and red shoes added a bit of local color.

Many barbers retired after cleaning up fortunes bobbing hair.

The limit was increased from three to 12 miles.

The miners and clocks struck as usual.

Other things also ran true to form.

Business rushes in ahead of the missionaries.

SUNDAY FIRE DESTROYS A HOME

Sunday morning fire, believed to have started from a defective flue, destroyed a two story frame house on the Thomas Brown farm, formerly the W. E. Marquis homestead, in Cross-creek township. The fire which was discovered at 11:30 o'clock had made such headway that it was impossible to save the house or any of the contents, beyond a few pieces of furniture.
The house was a ten-roomed structure and thoroughly modern in every way. It was occupied by George Gavattorta and family, who lost all of their household possessions. It is thought that the fire started in the cellar, possibly from an overheated furnace. In addition to the house a wash house and a coal shed were burned.
The house was valued at $7,000 and was partly covered by insurance. Mr. Gavattorta's loss will be $1,500, partly covered by insurance.

"TRIAL" LID LIFTING TODAY

Luxor, Feb. 12.—(United Press).—Disappointed archaeologists gathered gloomily around King Tut's tomb today, in readiness for the "trial" lid lifting which many of them will not see.

Officials announced that only Director Howard Carter and his staff and a small group of government dignitaries will witness removal of the lid from King Tut-ankh-men's tomb, today.

The removal will be without ceremony, and its sole purpose, officials said, will be to ascertain the condition of the mummy, and contents of the tomb. If the preliminary observation indicates a "good find" ceremonies will be conducted later, at which the Egyptologists and Archaeologists, who have gathered here from many places, will be admitted.

The lid of the coffin, a huge stone affair of great weight, was lifted a few inches yesterday, with block and tackle, as a test of the apparatus.

The coffin is supposed to contain three mummy cases, with the actual remains of the long-dead Pharaoh enclosed within the last one. These coverings are fragile and several days will be required to strip them away, the excavators believed.

BUTLER SAYS GO AFTER BREWERIES

Philadelphia, Feb. 12.—(United Press).—"Keep away from the pint stuff—go out and see if you can't get a brewery."

With this order to his police force Director of Public Safety Butler early today launched his first "surprise attack" on vice and crime. He commanded the 42 police districts to turn out at once for a concentrated mass attack on law breakers to last until midnight tonight.

Shortly after midnight Director Butler went to the police telephone switchboard and ordered the operator to "plug in" all stations simultaneously. He then rattled off his orders, dictated a list of suspected places to lieutenants and district commanders and told them to "go and get them."

Heretofore clean-up campaigns had been conducted over week-ends and were heralded in advance.

shall take such action as seems essential for the full protection of public interests.

"I shall not hesitate to call for the resignation of any official whose conduct in this matter in any way warrants such action upon my part. The dismissal of an officer of the government such as involved in this case, other than by impeachment, is exclusively an executive function.

"I regard this as a vital principle of our government. In discussing this principle Mr. Madison has well said: "It is laid down in most of the constitutions of bills of rights in the republics of America; it is to be found in the political writings of the most celebrated civilians, and is everywhere held as essential to the preservation of liberty, that the three great departments of government be kept separate and distinct.

"President Cleveland likewise stated the correct principle in discussing requests and demands made by the Senate upon him and upon different departments of the government, in which he said:

"They assume the right of the Senate to sit in the judgment upon the exercise of my exclusive discretion and the executive function for which I am solely responsible to the people from whom I have so lately received the sacred trust of office.

"My oath to support and defend the constitution, my duty to the people who have chosen me to execute the powers of their great office and not to relinquish them, and my duty to the chief magistracy which I must preserve unimpaired in all its dignity and vigor, compel me to refuse compliance with these demands."

Mr. Coolidge concluded declaring he was responsible to the people for his conduct in retention or dismissal of public officials and assumes full responsibility.

"I do not propose to sacrifice any innocent man for my own welfare," the President said.

A Brief for the Passage of The Soldiers' Adjusted Compensation Bill

By John Thomas Taylor, Vice Chairman, National Legislative Committee, The American Legion
To be published in six installments

1. The Four and One-Half Million Service Men and Women, and Their Families Want the Adjusted Compensation Bill Enacted Into Law.

All representative Veteran organizations and their Auxiliaries have endorsed this measure. Those represented officially, in the delegation which formally requested President Harding September 18, 1922, to approve the bill then before him included:

The G. A. R., the American Legion, The American Legion Auxiliary, The Disabled Veterans of the World War and Auxiliary, The Veterans of Foreign Wars and Auxiliary, the United War Widows, and the Disabled Emergency Officers' Association.

These organizations, which are representative of the ex-service men and women, have passed official resolutions approving the measure. Their membership totals one and one-half millions, and they speak with authority for the remainder of the ex-service population, as yet unorganized.

2. The Representatives of the American People Want This Debt Paid.

This is a representative form of government. Wherever and whenever the representatives of the American People have had the opportunity of expressing their will upon this measure, they have without exception, shown they believe in the justice of this payment, and exhibited their willingness to meet the obligation.

Specific illustrations of this are as follows:

(a). The Legislatures of twenty-three States have petitioned the Congress to enact this legislation.

(b). The Legislatures of twenty-six States have acted favorably on the question of State legislation, five of these since our bill was vetoed.

(c). The governors of thirty-three States called upon the Chief Executive to approve the bill when it was before him. These representatives:

Colorado, Arizona, Idaho, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Mississippi, Montana, Florida, New Mexico, Delaware, California, Illinois, Nevada, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Utah, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Iowa, Texas, New Jersey, South Carolina, Arkansas, Ohio, Minnesota, Wyoming, Oregon, Massachusetts.

(d). The representatives of the people, in the lower House of Congress, have four times voted favorably upon the measure with increasing majorities, the third vote having been 333 to 70, and the last, 258 to 54.

(e). The representatives of the States in the Senate, have through the Senate Finance Committee three times approved this measure. The bill passed the Senate 47 to 22, before the President's veto, and 44 to 28 following the veto.

3. The American People Have Shown They Want This Debt Paid.

In every instance where the American People have had an opportunity to register their will directly upon this question, they have voted in favor of Adjusted Compensation for the soldier.

Instances of this are as follows: The people of twenty-two States have voted either directly or by referendum, for State compensation for their own veterans. These votes registered majorities in favor of compensation of from 2 to 1, to 8 to 1, and are proof of the sentiment of the people on this question. The latest demonstration of how the people stand on this question came only last November from the State of New York, where, more than anywhere else in the United States, opposition to Adjusted Compensation is concentrated and where, in the face of a determined opposition, the voters passed the measure overwhelmingly.

Even the Chamber of Commerce of the United States of America, in the referendum it conducted among its members, showed a total vote upon the four propositions submitted of 4,116 in favor of compensation to 2,657 opposed, or a majority of 1,459.

4. The Soldier's Claim Is a Just and Honorable One.

The charge has been made that former service men are seeking "pay for their service." Could any charge be further from the truth?

Can it be supposed for a moment that if such were the case, such a modest adjustment of about a dollar a day would be asked for what service men went through?

For exchanging one's home for camp, or ship or trench? For sudden and prolonged separation from family and loved ones? For abandoning career, or business or profession? For enduring the sacrifices and privations of war service, even though not in the actual fighting zone, to say nothing of what was suffered by those who experienced the hell of battle, with the imminent risk of death or worse?

The soldier asks no reward for his

FLORA FINCH IS WORKING AS EXTRA

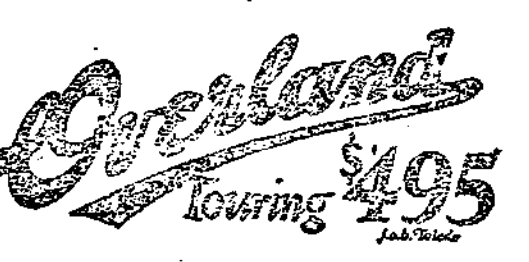

New York, Feb. 12.—(United Press).—Flora Finch, once the greatest screen comedienne in American film-dom, is working as a lowly extra in a Long Island studio.

The woman who made millions laugh when she worked opposite the late John Bunny, has been engaged "for a couple of days" and her salary "is not likely to be more than $15 a day."

SKILL CAN SAVE MOTHER AND BABE

Harrisburg, Feb. 12—(United Press).—Only a small part of infant and mother mortality is beyond present skill to avoid, according to Dr. Mary Riggs Noble, chief of the Division of Child Health, of the State Department of Health, in an article today on baby and maternity care.

"The burning need today is that parents should realize that almost every death of a baby or a mother was unnecessary," Dr. Noble declared.

"Only well mothers can expect to have well babies and for keeping the mother well special care is needed—not complicated care, not expensive care, not care that is hard to understand or to carry out, but the simple matter of seeing a doctor early and knowing the organs are healthy, getting advice as to eating, sleeping, bathing, dressing and exercising."

FIREMEN SQUELCH FIRE AT FOX'S STOP

The Charleroi Firemen responded to a silent alarm at Fox's Stop, Maple Creek, yesterday afternoon about 3:45 o'clock to extinguish flames which had ignited to the gas well derrick owned by Jake Lowstuter of Lincoln avenue, located on the front lawn of the home of Elmer Fox. The main feed line of the gas had frozen up and in an effort to thaw it out by the use of flames, the gas had ignited. By the use of water, the firemen had the flames squelched. When this derrick is light the gas meters in the immediate neighborhood registers the quantity used.

KIWANIS CLUB TO ENTERTAIN CLERGY

Erie, Feb. 10.—A unique business men's luncheon will take place in Erie on February 19, when the Kiwanis Club will entertain the clergymen of the city. Every member of the club will have a preacher as his invited guest, and the aim of the luncheon is "to bring about a closer association and understanding between the business community and the church."

Two speakers of national prominence have accepted the Kiwanis invitation to address the luncheon, the Rev. Dr. Paul D. Leinbach of Philadelphia, and Major Charles D. Morris of New York. Both are experts on present-day conditions in bible lands, and will speak on that subject. Dr. Leinbach is a prominent religious editor and was a member of the first American Commission to Turkey and Armenia. Major Morris was for many years a European representative of the Associated Press and is now secretary of the Near East Relief Commission to Greece.

Local clergymen plan to reciprocate the Kiwanis invitation by arranging a series of special services in their churches, with "business sermons," to which the Kiwanis members will be specially invited.

LETTER DEMANDING $5,000 LEFT ON A MAN'S DOORSTEP

Phila., Feb. 12—(United Press).—Operators of the police bomb squad are now working on a clue which they believe will lead to the arrest of the person who left several sticks of dynamite and a letter demanding $5,000 on the doorstep of the home of Salvatore Cucinotta.

Two well defined finger prints on the blackhand letter which threatened death unless the money was paid, is the clue to the sender of the blackhand menace.

The letter demanding $5,000 and the dynamite was found on the door step of his home by Cucinotta one morning. He at once summoned a policeman and an investigation began.

The letter was written in Italian, and signed by a skull and cross bones. It stated that Cucinotta's home was to be blown up if he did not place $5,000 in front of a house at 9300 North 13th street. There is no such address, according to the police.

Cucinotta has received other letters demanding money under the penalty of death but in every case the threats have been disregarded, according to the police.

SEARCH MADE FOR A COLORED MAN

Search is being made for Enoch Davis, colored, an employee of the Pittsburgh Steel Products company of Allentown, by Chief of Police Robert Elliot of Allentown, assisted by local police, to hold him pending the request into the death of Frank Allen, also colored, which occurred yesterday afternoon in the Mercy hospital, Pittsburgh, as a result of a bullet wound in the leg inflicted it is alleged by Davis, on Christmas day, last.

Both men resided in the same company house of the Steel company, and as a result of a quarrel Davis is said to have shot Allen. Allen was taken to the Charleroi-Monessen hospital, and Davis was placed under arrest. The hearing that was to have been held before Squire Paul R. Nutt, was postponed until such time as Allen could appear against Davis. However, in the meantime, Allen signed a sworn statement exonerating Davis from all blame and Davis was released.

Allen steadily improved and last week returned from the local hospital to Allentown, where he resumed work. After working seven days, however, he took sick and was rushed to the Mercy hospital, where his passing occurred yesterday, due to blood-poisoning.

Officers of the law went to the home of Davis last night, but found that he was missing.

CHANGE TODAY IN ENGLAND

London, Feb. 12—(United Press).—Parliament reassembled today after the change of ministry and Premier Ramsay MacDonald and his followers took over the "government side" of the House for the first time in British labor's history. The Liberals took seats on a lower row, on the government side.

Members began assembling early to get good seats. Viscount Curzon was the first seated, Bon Smith was second and Viscountess Astor third. MacDonald was scheduled to speak at 3:30 p. m. Loud cheers greeted his arrival. Much jubilation was shown by all the labor members.

Ex-Premier Baldwin and members of the late Conservative cabinet occupied the opposition front benches. Meantime the labor government was making every effort to avert the threatened strike of dock workers.

The government intervened in the crisis when Labor Minister Shaw arranged to confer with representatives of the workers and employers.

This mediation, he hoped, will result in breaking the deadlock between the dock workers and employers. Just before the government's intervention the workers' organization declared further negotiations were futile, and commenced preparations for a strike.

Kansas Rabbits Imported From Sunflower State

Stroudsburg, Feb. 12.—(U. P.)—Another large allotment of Kansas rabbits has been received here and will shortly be distributed to various parts of Monroe county.

The severe weather of 1922 and the many forest fires last year greatly reduced the number of rabbits in this section. Very few were killed during the hunting season.

This is the third shipment of Kansas rabbits here and several more are expected. It is believed that the "bunnies" will be more numerous than ever by next year, affording good hunting.

GREAT HUNTS BEING PLANNED

Hazleton, Feb. 12.—(United Press).—Two great hunts, the largest ever held in this section of the state, are being planned for Washington's birthday by state game wardens Harry Meiss and L. E. Brown.

The drives will be against foxes, weasels, wildcats, minks, crows and hawks, all of which have become so numerous and destructive as to menace the game of this section.

Meiss will lead several hundred hunters in cooperation with the United Sportsmen in the hunt here while Brown will lead a similar crowd in the Bear Creek and Bucks vicinity. All hunters are invited to bring their fox hounds and the cooperation of the farmers has been secured.

ANOTHER JUDGE IS WANTED

Sunbury, Feb. 12.—(United Press).—Petitions are being circulated by lawyers all over the 36 counties of the middle federal district of Pennsylvania asking that Congress supply another law judge to assist Federal Judge Charles B. Witmer.

The work of the district is becoming so heavy that no one man can handle it all, they contend. It is a physical impossibility for one judge to keep up with all the cases and it has long been felt that another judge should be added to this district, the lawyers say.

The great number of prohibition cases is partly responsible, it is said. The petition will be sent to congress shortly.

GIANTS TAKE OVER YANKS

Harrisburg, Feb. 12.—(United Press).—The Declaration of Independence, for many years carried for reference purposes in Smull's Legislative Handbook, may not be found in the 1923 edition now in course of preparation.

Smull's was recently purchased by the state under the terms of an act passed at the last session of the legislature.

It is planned to thoroughly revise the manual and eliminate much of the superfluous information contained in editions of recent years.

In addition, it was said today at the Department of Printing, there will be much useful information concerning departments of the state government that has never been published before.

Such statistics as health, accident, death, employment and resources of the state in mines, forests and manufactures will be provided, it was learned.

Certain tables are to be eliminated as of no further benefit and the volume is expected to be about one-third its present size, as an economy measure. This will be accomplished by fewer blank pages.

It has not been decided yet whether the Declaration of Independence is important enough from a reference standpoint to be published along with the constitution of the United States and Pennsylvania.

WHEN ESTATES ARE TAXABLE

Numerous inquiries are received by the Bureau of Internal Revenue relative to returns required of fiduciaries. A fiduciary for income tax purposes, is a person who holds in trust an estate to which another has a beneficial title or in which another has a beneficial interest, or receives and controls incomes of another, as in the case of receivers. A committee or guardian of the property of an incompetent person is a fiduciary.

Every fiduciary, or at least one of joint fiduciaries, must make a return for the year 1923 for the person whose income is in his charge, if the gross income of such person was $5,000 or over; if the person was married and living with wife or husband and the net income was $2,000 or more, if the person was single and the net income was $1,000 or over, for the estate or trust for which he acts if the net income of such estate or trust was $1,000 or more, or if any beneficiary or such estate or trust is a non-resident alien.

A fiduciary return, if the tax is payable by the fiduciary, must be on Form 1040, or if the tax is payable by the beneficiary, on Form 1041.

If the net income of a decedent from the beginning of the taxable year to the date of his death was at the rate of $1,000 or more a year if unmarried, or $2,000 a year if married, or if his gross income for the same period was at the rate of $5,000 a year, the executor or administrator must make a return for such decedent.

Fiduciary returns must be filed with the collector of internal revenue for the district in which the fiduciary lives or has his principal place of business. Information returns are required also of fiduciaries who paid to others during the year 1923 income of $2,000 or more. Information returns must be filed on Form 1099 with the commissioner of internal revenue at Washington, D. C.

Returns of fiduciaries on a calendar year basis must be filed on or before March 15, 1924. The tax may be paid in full at the time of filing the return, or in four installments.

GOLDMAN BEATS MARCHANT, BRITON

Philadelphia, Feb. 12.—(United Press).—Nate Goldman, local lightweight, won the judges' decision over Ted Marchant, England, in ten rounds. Goldman failed to show the class he displayed on New Year's day when he conquered Lew Tandler, and a crowd of 6,000 fans booed the decision.

Tony Ross, 131, Pittsburgh, punched his way to victory over Artie McCann, 123, Philadelphia, in an eight-round go.

up this punch board business, that was growing over the county. Shutte, as soon as told he was violating the law, did away with the board and has since conducted his place properly. The court remarked that the company selling punch boards to merchants should be prosecuted.

George Seraski of the Bertha mine, near Burgettstown, on his plea of guilty to possessing liquor, was sentenced to pay costs, fine of $100 and to serve 15 days in jail if fine is not paid and 30 days if it is not.

Recognizances were declared forfeited and bench warrants were ordered issued for the following defendants who failed to appear when called for trial: Maryan Krusienski, George Smith, Peter Panetta and Manuel Garcia. A. C. Lyon, Peter Lokovic, Pasquale Luongo and Marie Luongo, Ben Rosenthal, Patsy Desautels and Paul Smith.
